

I have enjoyed being able to eat my supper in peace and the peace and quiet of not having someone calling my self or family trying to sell me/us something that we neither want or need. Let Wisconsin no call law stand.